REMOVAL.

The Office and Job Printing establishment of the Newport Daily News and Weekly Journal has recently been removed from 114, to 123 Thames st. The undersigned hopes to see his friends and to receive a continuance of the patronage already bestowed upon him.

Editor and Proprietor.

The Suffolk Bank's Tool in Rhode Island.

The Merchants Bank, Providence, following in the footsteps of its "illustrious predecessor," made a show of its "teeth" on Tuesday, by demanding $80,000 of the Aquidneck, Rhode Island Union, Traders' and Newport Exchange, the only four Banks in all Rhode Island who have had the courage to declare their independence of the Suffolk and its servant. We are glad to say that this effort to punish the recusants in Rhode Island, was just as successful, as the Suffolk in Massachusetts, and we may add, the act is just as contemptible and malicious, and entitles the Merchants' Bank, Providence, in all respects, to the odium which an enlightened community has placed upon such conduct elsewhere. Indeed, there is far less apology for the Merchants', and shows its determination to brave public opinion, rather than to learn wisdom by the late defeat of its principal. The managers of the Merchants' Bank will learn, after a few more such efforts, that even the Banks that still keep their deposits with them, are not such slaves as they suppose;—that their sympathies are with the four whom the Merchants are endeavoring to injure, and, that, at no distant day, they also will battle for their rights, and we advise them to do it at once. Why pay tribute? Why give your profits to your oppressor? Do you suppose you would fare better than the others for this hesitation? Try it, and you will soon find out.

"The Fry Bequest."

MR. EDITOR:—In the "Newport Advertiser" of yesterday is an article, written I understand by Gov. W. B. Lawrence, in relation to the non-acceptance of the Fry Bequest by the City.

The whole matter has been publicly canvassed so recently, and is so thoroughly understood by our citizens generally, that they will not of course be misled by the exceedingly ingenious argument of Gov. Lawrence. It is sufficient to state, that upon the death of Mrs. Wickham, when the bequest was to take effect, if ever, the city failed to accept, and CARRY MR. FRY'S VIEWS INTO EFFECT FORTHWITH, and the estate, and Bank Stock, reverted to Mrs. Rhodes, the sole surviving interested heir. Any action by the City Council, declining the bequest at this time, or accepting or declining it at any previous time, has no bearing upon the question at all, as the terms are expressly provided by the will itself.

The Governor's editorial then, is of no consequence, except where he charges, or at least loudly insinuates, that there is "a transaction connected, which is calculated to give it 'even a criminal aspect.'" In the absence of the lady thus grossly attacked, I will explain what foundation exists for this statement.

At the time of Mr. Fry's death, it was his well known intention, to have altered his will, giving his whole property to Mrs. Wickham, he having abandoned the idea of the Asylum in his late years. (His memorandums for the new will are now among his papers) notwithstanding which it was Mrs. Wickham's intention, in case the city should decline the bequest, to place the sum of $4000, in trust, to accumulate until the public want required its use, and to be strictly applied to the purposes indicated by the Will of Mr. Fry.

It is this intention of Mrs. Rhodes, to place $4000 in trust for a future Orphan Asylum, that Gov. Lawrence attacks as criminal!

I can conceive no motive, for this very earnest attack, other than a desire to revive a bitter feud, long existing between Governor Lawrence, and Mr. Fry during his life, the particulars of which have not yet been made public—and I am quite sure that Governor Lawrence will not desire them to be; or a wish to identify a crusade in favor of orphans, with some plan for political agitation.

Your ob't servant,

H. R. HAZARD, Jr.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.—There were two errors in our report of the proceedings of this Court in yesterday's paper—one by myself and the other by the compositor, who made the vessel the John R. Dom, when it should have read the John R. Dow. The action was a civil, and not a criminal one, as our article of yesterday might be understood. The case was decided against the respondent.

A bear, weighing 350 pounds, was shot in Indiana County, Pa., last week.

Heavy white frosts were seen in far south as Charleston, S. C., last week.

LOCAL NEWS.

FOUND.—The body of young Chase, who was drowned at the same time and from the same boat as Capt. Thomas J. Ross, was found yesterday, in the vicinity of Batesman's near Beaver Tail Light, and conveyed to his late residence, in the family of Captain Ross. His clothes were badly torn, and his flesh also shockingly mutilated, as we are informed, probably from concussions among the rocks. His funeral will be solemnized to-day, from his late residence, 16 Prospect Hill Street, as will be seen by a notice in another place. It is a satisfaction, though a melancholy one, to the friends of these deceased persons, to be enabled, by the recovery of both their bodies, to pay the last sad tribute of affection to those thus suddenly swept away by the hand of death, and to feel that their graves are not in the unexplored depths of the ocean. The lad Chase was 14 years of age.

FIREMAN'S EXCURSION.—The long talked of Excursion for the benefit of Protection Engine Co. No. 6 of this city, came off yesterday afternoon and evening. Engine Companies Nos. 3 and 7 attended the RIVES on the occasion, besides which a large number of our citizens availed themselves of the opportunity offered, to take a moonlight sail in the staunch and favorite little steamer Perry. The American Brass Band, of Providence, furnished delightful music, both on the excursion and at the DeWolfe House in Bristol, and the whole passed off to the satisfaction of all parties present.

The THREEs, under the command of their popular foreman Capt. Sayer, made a very fine appearance in their neat uniforms, as did also the FIVES and SEVENS.

THE INDIAN SUMMER.—We are now realizing all the glories of this much lauded season of the year. The weather since Sunday has been charming beyond anything that was experienced during the month, and were it "fashionable," bathing at the beach, even, would be quite as comfortable. The only draw-back upon this state of things is the consciousness that it can only be of short continuance, and will be shortly succeeded by the chilling blasts of November. This salubrious state of the atmosphere has not been lost upon the ladies, who have enlivened our sidewalks with an earnestness and a display of colors evincing a determination to vie with Nature in the redundancy of their attractions.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE BY THE FORT SOLIDIERA.—It was only a few weeks ago that a party of U. S. soldiers from Fort Adams stole a boat from Bannister's Wharf, took her to the Fort and left her at the wharf there, badly damaged. A similar outrage was attempted by two others last Monday night. Mr. Charles Heath, who keeps a fish market at No. 16 Bannister's Wharf, informs us that on the above night two soldiers got on board his boat lying at the wharf, and in attempting to get her under way, parted her rigging, and otherwise damaged her, besides wantonly destroying his lobster pots. They were both very much intoxicated, and one of them fell overboard and would have been drowned, had he not been rescued by two men belonging on Block Island who were on the wharf, as he was too drunk to get out, and his companion was too much so to render him any assistance.

We commend this case to the attention of Col. Magruder, who doubtless will, for the honor of his corps, take measures to bring the fellows to justice. Such acts as the above will not be likely to go very far toward strengthening the bonds of friendship between our people and the troops at the Fort.

ANOMALOUS.—By some locus pocus transmutation, our compositors substituted the word cool, for its opposite, warm, in the coal advertisement of Mr. B. W. Davis in yesterday's paper. Though the present summer like weather is not very favorable for a trial of its qualities in that respect, Mr. Davis assures us that there does not exist a single "cooling" quality in that coal of his, as those who make trial of it will assuredly discover when the biting blasts of winter render warm coal fires one of the greatest of earthly blessings. In short it is warranted to heat up equal to any coal in the market.

MILL STREET.—The Street Commissioners' corps have made an attack on Mill Street, which looks just now something like the boulevards of Paris during a revolution. Two or three weeks, however, will see it present altogether another aspect. Success to the movement.

The Metropolis came in New York yesterday morning enveloped in a mantle of fog, her whistle wending forth its shrill notes of warning at intervals, resounding through our streets in the stillness of the night, and arousing the sleepers at an unwonted hour. There were some, we opine in whose ears it sounded anything but "fairy like music."

For a real curiosity, look in the window of A. J. Ward's Music Store, 120 Thames Street. Bachelors, especially, might learn "something to their advantage" by studying a picture "we saw there yesterday—being a scene (we are told) by no means uncommon in domestic life, and a "natural attendant" on conjugal bliss.

The Colonial Records of Newport.

It is interesting and instructive to look back through the lapse of years, to the time when, two centuries ago, a sturdy band of men, with iron hearts and iron frames, entered the trackless wilderness and laid the foundations on which were to be built a structure which in its gigantic dimensions, strength and beauty was to astonish the world—a temple of liberty where all men might come and worship.

The Colonial history of Newport is nearly contemporary with that of Providence. Scarcely had Roger Williams settled himself upon the soil of "Providence Plantations," ere WILLIAM CODDINGTON followed him through the then almost trackless country, and striking further South, pitched his tent upon the fertile soil of "Aquidneck." His eye at once took in the beauties of the location—though perhaps he did not dream of its ultimate destiny—and he lost no time in "striking a bargain" with Cananquois for its possession. This was in 1637—two hundred and twenty-one years ago. It was two years subsequent to this that a separation took place in the then town of Portsmouth, and Newport sprang into being—in 1639.

The publication, by order of the General Assembly, of the Colonial Records of Rhode Island, under the editorship of the accomplished Secretary of State, Hon. John R. Bartlett, has opened a channel through which will flow the hitherto pent up historical facts connected with the early existence of the State, thus supplying to the people a medium through which they may enlighten themselves as to the doings of their ancestors.

It is our design, having been placed in possession of the first three volumes of these published Records, to compile therefrom for publication in our columns, a history of Newport during the Colonial period, as extracted from the early records of the town. In order to do so, it will be necessary to follow the history of Portsmouth down to the period when the separation took place between that town and Newport. The first entry on the Records is a "Deed from Cananquois and Miantunnomu chief sachems of the Narragansetts, of the purchase of the Island of Aquidneck (Rhode Island) to William Coddington and others. March 21, 1639-37."

The 21st of the 11th month called March, in ye year (soe commonly called) 1637, Miantunnomu, That we Cananquois and Miantunnomu ye two chief Sachems of the Narragansetts, by virtue of our general command of this day, as sachims of Aquidneck and Kitickamuckitt, ourselves and land unto us, have sold unto Mr. Coddington and his friends united unto him, the great Island of Aquidneck lying from hence Eastward in this Bay, as also the marsh or meadow upon Quinonickit and the rest of the Islands in the Deed excepting Chibachnesset formerly sold unto Mr. Winthrop, the now Governor of the Massachusetts and Mr. Williams of Providence; also the grass upon the rivers and coves about Kitickamuckitt and from these to Pawpawquatch, for the full payment of forty fathom of white beads, to be equally divided between us. In witness whereof we have here subscribed:

"Item. That by giving by Miantunnomu ten coats and twenty hoes to the present inhabitants, they shall remove themselves from off the Island before next winter. Witness our hands."

(Here follows the mark of "Cananquois," being the representation of a bow and arrow, and that of "Miantunnomu," simply an arrow. Also the signatures, or marks, of Yotuesh, Assometime, Nishamoh, and "Cananquois his son," with the signatures of Roger Williams and Randall Holden, as witnesses.)

This Deed having been duly executed and signed, the next business was to buy off or satisfy the other principal personages on the Island which was satisfactorily accomplished, in the course of the year, as will be seen by the following documents appended to the Deed given above:

"This witnesseth that I, Wamataunneut ye at present sachim, inhabitant of ye Island, have received five fathom of wampum and doe consent to the contents. Witness my hand."

Ye mark of WAMATAUNEUT. In ye presence of RANDALL HOLDEN."

"Memorandum. That I, Ousamequin freely consent that Mr. William Coddington and his friends united unto him shall make use of any grass or trees on ye vacant land on Pawpawquatch and doe promise love and just carriage of myself and all my men to the said Mr. Coddington and English his friends united to him, having received of Mr. Coddington five fathom of wampum as gratuity from himself and the rest."

Dated on the 6th of the 8th month, 1639. Ye mark of OUSAMEQUIN.

Witnesses ROGER WILLIAMS, RANDALL HOLDEN. A true copy per me FRANCIS BRINLEY, Recorder.

A true copy per me WILLIAM LYTHBURN, Recorder. "Receipts by the Sachims on account of the sale of the Island of Aquidneck (Rhode Island)."

The 11th day of May, 1639. Received by me Miantunnomu (as a gratuity) of Mr. Coddington and his friends united for my pains and travel in removing of the natives off on the Island of Aquidneck, ten fathom of wampum and one broad cloth coat.

(Mark) MIANTUNNOMU. A true copy of the original entered and recorded. pr. JOHN SANFORD, Recorder. June 20th, 1639.

Received of Mr. William Coddington and of his friends united to him in full satisfaction of ground broken up, or in any other title or claim whatsoever formerly had of the Island of Aquidneck, the full sum of five fathom wampum and a coat.

Witnesses MONPOUCKE, WAMPUMAGORRY. A true copy of the original entered and recorded. pr. JOHN SANFORD, Recorder.

This was completed the transfer of the Island of Aquidneck, &c., to the whites, at a total cost of forty fathom of white beads, ten fathom of wampum, twenty fathom of wampum, twenty-five coats, thirteen hoes and two "tarpekes."

THE CODDINGTON FIVE CENTS SAVINGS Bank.—By reference to a notice in our columns, it will be observed that this institution has declared a dividend to its depositors, which speaks well for its standing and management. Would the youth of our city avail themselves more generally of the advantages afforded by this institution, and deposit their "loose change" in its vaults instead of spending it for trifles, not only themselves, but the community, would be vastly benefited thereby.

THE LADIES' WREATH.—The November number of this elegant magazine is on our table. The present number commences a new volume. The frontis is an exquisite steel plate, "The Fisherman's Family," besides which there is an elegant Fashion Plate. This Magazine is edited by Mrs. Mary A. Dennison, and published, at one dollar a year, by John F. Scovill, New York, and is richly worth the money.

EMERSON'S MAGAZINE AND PUTNAM'S MONTHLY.—The October number of this Magazine has been received at this office. Its contents are rich and varied, the typographical execution of the work very much improved. The principal articles are: the continuation of the Life of Washington; Death of the Dauphin. With a portrait of Eleazer Williams; The Seven Travellers, with illustrations; a pleasing article, &c., &c. Oaksmith & Co., publishers, New York.

ANOTHER CABLE PROJECT.—From our English files we learn that a Mr. Rowett has offered to lay a rope-rovered electric wire between Valencia and Newfoundland for the sum of $182,000. This offer had excited considerable discussion. The Times thinks the cable proposed would not be useful, but says:

All the experiments in very deep sea tend to show that the principle of a rope-rovered wire is the right one after all. For any depth under 1,000 fathoms a wire rope is the best and cheapest; for great depths—2,000 and 3,000 fathoms—it becomes the dearest, because the worst and most difficult to submerge. No man who has ever seen a deep sea wire laid but must have been convinced that covering the rope with wire was only making a difficulty which required all the costly apparatus of paying-out machines, brakes and check tackle, to contend against, and which in but too many instances it has been impossible totally to overcome. Any one, also, who has ever crossed the Atlantic, would be glad to pay out a piece of common whiplard, without breaking it, from Ireland to America; because in such a case there would be no strain on it, and it could run off as fast it chose. This ought to be the principle in which all very deep sea ropes should be laid, down everywhere. A rope-rovered wire, light enough to be very cheap, and because light therefore strong, with such a coil running from a steamer going ten miles or so an hour, a dozen cables might be laid across the Atlantic in a twelvemonth if no other difficulties exist. It has been urged that such ropes, if moved by currents at the bottom of the sea, would chafe through at once; but besides that this objection applies equally to wire, there exists proof positive that in the greater depths of the ocean the water is as motionless as the bottom as the rocks on which it rests.

"LOCAL ITEMS" OF A COUNTRY NEWS-PAPER.—The Alleghany Valley Echo is a new paper just started at Emmenton, among the mountains in the Keystone State. The editor says he shall not publish another paper for three weeks, as he is obliged to look up some paper, ink, &c., at Pittsburgh. His news record is comprehensive. We learn that "the river is very low and fish plenty. Next Monday will be the first day of our first Fair, and from all appearances it's going to be a first-rate show; there's to be a 'flying horse,' a 'rearing mule,' and a 'tumbling jacks' on hand, expressly for the benefit of the ladies, and Gam Davis is expected to get drunk by the time class O is attended to. Our friends, Messrs. Harrison Morgan, and Harvey Sloan have been to a great deal of trouble and expense in getting up a patent back-action anti-terrestrial Petasus, that's going to fly clean over the flying horse, and the sights and sees going to be on hand on this occasion will undoubtedly crowd the enclosure. We shall give a full history of it in our next. Matrimony has been greatly on the increase for some time past, and after awhile something else will be on the increase. Several jugs of 'Squire Murrain's mountain dew have left town lately. Some scoundrels broke into Mr. Gormley's cellar, got some fish oil, instead of whiskey, left his garden gate open, and an old sow entered and eat up all his sour-kraut on the stalk. Warren money is now good, and John Foaker's potatoes didn't turn out so well as they might have done; there will be an average crop generally. Ross Patter's oxen ran off last night smashing down some eighty rods of fence. 'Sings' are very plenty, and a child was born up in the wilderness with a ring in its nose. The low stage of the river and the rise of candle-wick induces us to whistle our splinters down to a point. Cash receipt of the week—fifty cents and a dime from Mr. John Mehreen, and trouble and torn trousers."

The Lawrence, Kansas, Herald of Freedom copies approvingly Douglas's speech at Freeport, and says: The Legislature of Kansas cannot neglect, at its next session, to take away such local legislation as now encourages or gives protection to slavery. It will do more; it will throw pains and penalties around the institution; it will give the negro the right to defend his person from assaults upon him by his master; it will, in short, make him a freeman, and that without provision of recompense. The underground railroad will be thrown upon the surface. Those holding slave property in Kansas are urged to consider this as prophetic, if they please, for it will surely be realized.

A slave case, to test the right of two slaves to their freedom, and also to recover $5,000 left them by their former master, is attracting considerable attention in Lowell, Mass. A rich planter in Miss had, at his death, placed $5,000 in the hands of a man named Keyes, for the purpose of taking a favorite slave and her daughter to the North and providing for them. But Keyes had kept the money and hired out the slaves. Recently he brought them to Lowell, where they at once made complaint, and Keyes was arrested.

BLOODY DUEL.—A duel was recently fought near Memphis, Tenn., between Mr. Waters of Virginia, and Dr. J. E. Nagle, formerly of Lancaster, Pa. They met on an island, and without any witnesses but their seconds fought one of the bloodiest duels on record. They fired two rounds with Derringer pistols, both being wounded at each fire. They then, by agreement, resorted to revolvers, and continued the fight. Mr. Waters was killed at every shot, and died the same night. Dr. Nagle received wounds that will probably terminate fatally.

A correspondent of the Charleston Courier writes, that the suspected slave E. W. Rawlins, has recently landed a cargo of 850 Africans at Pinar de la Teja, on the Island of Cuba.

Wm. Washburn of Wareham, Mass. while drunk, discharged a loaded muske among a group of boys who were making fun at him, wounding three of them, one severely.

W. L. Burt advertises in the Boston papers, that he wants to buy a Bank charter in Maine, New Hampshire or Vermont, "for which a reasonable price will be paid."

The jail at Freehold, N. J., was forced on Friday night by the prisoners, all of whom escaped.

It is said that Governor Denier declines to withdraw his resignation as Governor of Kansas.
